

SOCIETY OF OLD FRAMLINGHAMIANS ANNUAL DINNER 29 MARCH 2014

Following the Annual General Meeting of the Society, the 2014 Annual Dinner was held at Framlingham College on Saturday 29 March 2014 when 95 attended and enjoyed a first class 4 course dinner. Amongst those attending, 6 were members of staff from Framlingham College and Brandeston Hall. OFs present ranged from one who started in the late 1920s, through all the decades to some who left last year. Eight OFs claimed subsidised tickets for being under 25 years old, including 2 current Moreau Scholars. During the meal, diners were entertained with two delightful pieces sung by Framlingham College Y12 student, Elizabeth Leaver, accompanied by Claire Weston on the piano and organised by the Director of Music, Tim Rhodes.

The guests of the Society included the Headmaster of Framlingham College - Mr Paul Taylor, the Headmaster of Brandeston Hall - Mr Martin Myers-Allen, the Chairman of Governors - Mr Andrew Fane, the Head of School - Suzie Reid, Head Girl - Kat Twentyman, Head Boy - Thomas Hampson and Mr David Barker, formerly Head of Geography for 33 years. Norman Porter (Hon Sec) paid tribute to David Barker's many achievements at the College and made a presentation of a cut glass globe on behalf of generations of Old Framlinghamians who had been taught by him. Richard Sayer (President of the Society) proposed the toast to Framlingham College and Brandeston Hall, and their respective Headmasters. Paul Taylor gave the response and proposed a toast to the Society. A number of those attending made good use of bed and breakfast accommodation offered by the College, as term had ended.
