Chaplain: Welcome and introduction

Cappella Lumina: I Vow To Thee, My Country, Holst

Chaplain:

We are here to worship Almighty God, whose purposes are good; whose power sustains the world he has made; who loves us, even though we have failed in His service; who gave Jesus Christ as the light of the world. We ask that we may seek understanding when points of view differ, that we may settle conflicts peacefully and uphold the laws of God.

Jesus taught us to call God 'Our Father', and so in faith and trust we pray together the words of The Lord's Prayer.

All

Our Father who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name;
thy kingdom come;
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation;
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
the power and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

ACT OF REMEMBRANCE

Procession of the wreath. All turn to face the War Memorials as the wreath passes by.

Chaplain:

Let us remember before God and commend to his sure keeping, those who have died in war, particularly those members of this College, the Prep School and those known to the congregation here today.

We say together the words from the last verse of Binyon's poem 'For the Fallen'.

All They shall grow not old as we that are left grow old.
Age shall not weary them, nor the years condemn.
At the going down of the sun, and in the morning,
we will remember them.

We will remember them.

THE LAST POST

THE TWO MINUTE SILENCE

THE REVEILLE

Chaplain:

When you go home, tell them of us and say,
for your tomorrow, we gave our today.

PRAYERS OF PENITENCE AND RECONCILIATION

Principal: Mrs Louise North

We turn to God in sorrow as we acknowledge before him the suffering of his world and the pain of his people.

When hatred causes divisions between nations and alienates races and cultures,

Lord, have mercy:

All Lord, have mercy.

When indifference diminishes the dignity of the imprisoned, the homeless and the refugee,

When pride leads us to trust ourselves and to disregard the demands of your word and your laws,

Lord, have mercy:

All Lord, have mercy.

We pray for all who suffer as a result of war:

for the injured and disabled, for the mentally distressed,

For the homeless and refugees, for those who are hungry and for all who have lost their livelihood and security,

Lord, hear our prayer.

All Lord, hear our prayer.

For those who mourn their dead; for those who have lost husband, wife, children or parents; for those who have lost any of their relatives or friends.

We remember them today and commend their spirits to you, the giver of life and eternity.

All Lord, hear our prayer.
Lord, hear our prayer.
Amen.

THE ACT OF COMMITMENT

Lieutenant Colonel Martin Myers-Allen

Let us pledge ourselves anew to the service of God and our fellow human beings; that we may help, encourage and comfort others, and support the organisations which are working for the relief of those in need, and for the peace and welfare of the nations of the world.

All

Lord God our Father, we pledge ourselves
to serve you and all mankind,
in the cause of peace,
for the relief of want and suffering,
and for the praise of your name.
Guide us by your Spirit;
give us wisdom; give us courage;
give us hope;
and keep us faithful now and always.

Lead us from death to life,
from falsehood to truth.
Lead us from despair to hope,
from fear to trust.

Lead us from hate to love,
from war to peace.
Let peace fill our hearts,
our world, our universe.

Amen.

THE BLESSING (all stand)
