

CAPTAIN HUGH VALENTINE (1899-1902)

Date of Birth	18 April 1886 in Thornage Norfolk. He was baptised in Thornage on 16 May 1886 and was the youngest child and only son of Henry and Edith Sheringham. The family lived in Thornage Hall where Henry was the tenant farmer of Lord Astley of nearby Melton Constable Hall. The tenancy passed to another family after Henry.
School Information	Sub Prefect. Won Springfield Cup in 1902
Career Information	Farmer
Date Of Death	16 October 1918
Cause of Death	Killed in action.
Location	Cairo
Cemetery	Cairo War Cemetery
Rank	Captain
Branch of Service	Camel Transport Corps T Company attached to Royal Army Service Corps

Unfortunately we have not yet been able to secure a photo of his grave in Cairo but thanks to Norman Semple we do have a photo of his memorial in Thornage church.

